Highlights

Our NAIDOC Week Tuckshop Special was a huge hit, with over 50 vermicelli meals sold! Thank you to everyone who supported the celebration through food — it was truly deadly!

During the school holidays, we kicked off the repainting of our Prep area. Unfortunately, the strange weather conditions impacted the quality of the finish. We're currently reassessing and will have this issue corrected soon — keep an eye out for updates!

♥♥♥ A Heartfelt Thank You

A massive shoutout to the First Nations Parent Reference Group and school staff for planning and delivering such a meaningful NAIDOC celebration last Friday. We extend our deepest thanks to:

- Our Elders and special guests
- The CAID dancers
- Uncle Pat
- Aunty Nettie
- Fitzzy First Nation Student Representatives
- North High Students and Staff
- Deadly Choices
- PCYC
- Bunnings
- The Mackay Men's Shed
- And of course, our hardworking Tuckshop team!

Watching all these incredible groups come together was truly magical and a beautiful celebration of culture, community, and connection.

We're excited to announce the upcoming Fitzzy Science Showcase in collaboration with the school! Activities will be held in the library, with a dedicated day for each year level. Students who attend on their day will go into a draw to win a STEM-related prize!

Plus, don't miss our daily Microscope Mystery Guessing Game – 50 cents per guess each morning during Science Week.

More information will be heading your way soon — stay tuned!

Our Prep students recently celebrated their 100th day of school, and what a fun day it was! The P&C was thrilled to kick off the celebrations by providing a yummy cake for the occasion.

The staff and students looked absolutely fabulous dressed as 100-year-olds — it was a day full of laughter, learning, and lots of smiles. Well done, Preppies!
